

Psychology Crossword Puzzle

ACROSS

- 3 The work Psychologists often do, to learn how the mind and behavior works; often includes experiments.
- 6 What Psychologists are -- people who have this career study things.
- 8 The job that the human brain is really good at.
- 9 What takes place (hopefully!) in the classroom, and it's also something Psychologists sometimes study.
- 11 What kids like to have, and what the job of being a Psychologist is!
- 13 What Psychologists and other scientists do to learn how things work -- kids can help by participating, at the I.U. Department of Psychological and Brain Sciences
- 14 The science that is the study of the human mind and behavior.

DOWN

- 1 Studied by Psychologists, actions (Parents are usually looking for good _____).
- 2 What a clinical psychologist is good at; also, another word for "assisting", as in "lend a _____ hand".
- 4 A white rodent that scientists sometimes use in experiments; for example, to sniff out cheese and find their way through a maze. Has a long tail.
- 5 After high school, the kind of school you go to for 4 years, to learn more, and perhaps pick a career.
- 6 Study that is systematic, to discover or understand a phenomenon (often ending in "ology", for example, "Psychology" is one).
- 7 A great place to study Psychology in Bloomington, Indiana.
- 10 What a teacher is called at colleges and universities; lots of Psychologists have this job, too.
- 12 The part of your body that controls your whole body, and does the thinking.
- 15 The part of your body where you should wear a bike helmet when skating or biking, to protect your brain.